HEIRLOOM CREATIONS IS EXPANDING!

We are excited to announce we have broken ground on TWO 4,000 square foot buildings one block behind our store on Hawthorn Ave. One building will be our brand new SEWING MASTERY FILMING STUDIO & EVENT CENTER and the second building will house our growing SERVICE CENTER & WAREHOUSE. We are not moving. The original retail store on Western Ave will remain as it currently sits. This expansion will give us more space for filming, events, storage and a place to house our growing team of sewing machine technicians. We hope to start hosting events early 2021.

We have been working on this expansion since last year before Covid hit. Looking back on the timeline we had no idea that this project would be the answer to providing our customers with more space and comfort in this ever changing landscape of our world.

Watch the Monday e-mails for building updates.

CLASS UPDATE

We will resume classes when we feel it is safe to do so. At this time we are concerned more about the health of our customers than anything else. We understand many of you are missing the social interaction of our classes and the Sewtopia Sewing Club. We miss you too! We all know that keeping safe distances is key to everyone's safety.

BASIC MACHINE CLASSES

We have scheduled a few basic sewing machine, embroidery machine and serger Mastery classes to start in September. These classes will be limited to 6 people.

SEWING MASTERY UPDATE

The SewingMastery.com website and YouTube channel has become a staple of education during the Covid pandemic.

Sara has been filming sewing machine video tutorials since March 2020. There are now over 75 machines filmed and over 4,000 videos!

In April, YouTube recognized our efforts of reaching 100,000 subscribers with the SILVER CREATORS AWARD. In the words of my friend's 13 year old son, "That is a BIG DEAL!"

When questions come up on your own machine, just GOOGLE it! If we have produced a video on your brand and model it will come up.

We are currently filming the Bernina 790+, Husqvarna Viking designer EPIC and the Pfaff creative icon

CRAFTSY IS COMING BACK

We are excited to announce the return of Craftsy around September 1, 2020!

Earlier this year Blueprint announced the end of all their online courses. Blueprint bought Craftsy a couple years back and now new company, TN Marketing, has purchased all the online classes and is working hard to bring back the original Craftsy name and online course platform. This is great news for students, subscribers and instructors. So far the communication regarding the switch-over has been very transparent and smooth. If you own Crafty/blueprint classes, nothing with change.

ONLINE COURSES ARE BIG!

These last couple months have proved that online courses are BIG! Sewing machine stores around the world have had to completely shut down, cancel all classes or at least limit their contact with customers. When people are desperate to continue their education they turn to online courses.

We have welcomed students from every corner of the world to the Stitching Cosmos curriculum! We have become the sewing world's hub for technical support for sewists. Tens of thousands of people bought sewing machines who have never sewed an inch in their life!

The Stitching Cosmos online courses have been filmed on three different brands of sewing machines. Take a journey of a lifetime learning over 25 brand specific sewing techniques while mastering over 18 presser feet. Did you know you can watch 10 videos for free as you audition the course to see if it is the right one for you?

Visit SewingMastery.com/courses to learn more!
